Draw...

Like David Hockney

David Hockney is a famous artist who loves to draw and paint. He was born in Bradford, moved to America and now lives in France.

David Hockney has created some amazing artwork on his tablet and phone using his finger to draw. David Hockney began making these pictures as quick simple images to make his friends smile.

He often draws everyday objects from around his home. You can create artwork like David Hockneys 'ipad' art using your phone or tablet and send it to your friends and family to make them smile!

What do I need?

- Choose something from around your home you would like to draw.
- Your phone or tablet.
- Download a Free Brushes App (like Brushes redux) onto your phone or tablet.

What am I doing ?

- Open the app
- Press the + symbol to get a new page
- Press create to get a blank page.
- Select the brush picture at the top of the screen (next to the rubber)
- you are ready to draw!
- The type of brush, thickness of line and colour can be changed using the colour and brush stroke pictures at the bottom of the screen.
- When you've finished a drawing you can save it and send it to your friends and family.

Hints and Tips

- Have a play round with the different brushes and effects you can use before starting your object drawing on a new page.
- Think about creating your background first and drawing your object on top of this.
- On some brushes apps you can watch back a video of your drawing being created!
- To really draw like David Hockney use lots of colour !
